9 次の英文を読んで、あとの問いに答えなさい。

One day Lucy and I were playing tennis and the ball went into Mike's house. Though we were shocked, we went to his house and asked him to give us our ball. He said "No." We felt upset.

Suddenly I had an idea. There was a water tank behind Mike's house. I looked at it and said to Lucy, "Look at this, Lucy. We can climb the $\langle 1 \rangle$ and jump over the gate."

Lucy agreed, but we were both wearing skirts. We couldn't climb with them.

- "We can see tomorrow. Don't forget to wear pants." said Lucy.
- "Bye," I said and went back home.

The next day I went to Lucy's house early. We were both wearing pants.

- "Good luck," said Lucy's brother, Paul. [②]. He said, "Call me if [③
- ④ We went to the water tank. "Who will climb first?" asked Lucy. "You," I said. She agreed.

She climbed down into the Mike's house. I followed her and then we were looking under a bed for the ball when [⑤].

It was Paul. " Mother is calling you," he said.

We hurried and grabbed the lost ball. Wow! A gold bar was with the ball. We quickly took both the ball and the gold bar and climbed up the water tank again. When we reached Lucy's house, they were watching TV. It was News time.

I couldn't believe my ears when it said that 30 gold bars were stolen from a gold shop. They showed a picture of the gold bars and it was like the one from Mike's house. We were surprised.

We quickly told the story to Lucy's mother and she called the police. The police came and caught ($\stackrel{\circ}{}$).

They found more gold bars in the house.

Later the policeman came and said to us, "Thank you children for catching the thief. Here is a gift for both of you."

When we opened the (①), we were glad. There was a new ball for Lucy and me.
